YALE ELEVEN HAS HARD SCHEDULE

Eight of the Ten Games Will Be Played at Home—Will Meet Vanderbilt.

New Haven, Conn., March 8.—Yale's 1910 football team has a hard schedule of games. Ten contests will be played by the Blue during the coming season. The initial game will be with Wesleyan at New Haven on September 23, and the final game with Harvard on November 10. The Harvard game will be played at New Haven also. The Princeton game on November 12 will be in Princeton this year.

Two newcomers are on the Yale schedule for 1910. They are Tufts and Vanderbilt University, which will be substituted for Springfield Training School and Amherst. Syracuse will be played on October 15. The game with the New Yorkers is the second on the schedule.

Captain Coy's loss will be greatly felt next fall, but it is expected he will whip the men into the best of shape in his role as coach. Coy will have some good veteran material to work with, and there are some promising candidates from among the members of last year's freshmen team.

Eight of the ten games on the schedule will be played at New Haven. The only two out-of-town games are with West Point and Princeton. The West Point game is scheduled for October 16, and the following week the Southerners from Vanderbilt will journey to New Haven to meet the Bulldogs. ## THE RISE OF FIFTH AVENUE

And the Location There of the Hotel St. Regis.

It needs but one glance at Fifth Avenue, New York, from Thirty-fourth Street northward, to assure any one that this avenue is supplanting Broadway as the central thoroughfare of New York's traffic. The reason for this change is easy to discover. New York is becoming so vast that no one street can contain all its great enterprises. Besides this, Broadway, as it runs northward, turns far to the west of the center of Manhattan. Fifth Avenue, above Madison Square, occupies this center all the way to the Harlem River, and Fifth Avenue, therefore, is becoming in this district New York's main artery of trade and traffic. In this new center—at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street—is the Hotel St. Regis, a hotel designed, built, furnished, equipped and maintained for patrons of refined and discriminating tastes. The St. Regis has earned for itself the deserved title of "America's Finest." No feature that could improve or perfect any detail of its equipment or operation has been omitted or overlooked at the St. Regis, and its homelike atmosphere and quietness commend it especially to hotel-lovers. The restaurant at the St. Regis is unexcelled anywhere, though its charges are no higher than those of other first-class hotels. Transient guests coming to New York and stopping at the St. Regis will find accommodations of the very highest grade in every particular, and at standard rates. Single rooms are $3 and $4 a day; double rooms $4 and $5 a day; for two people; while for a parlor, bedroom and private bath the rates are $12 a day and up.

SPIDERS HAVE FINE BASEBALL PROSPECTS

Candidates for Team Are Showing Up in Splendid Form—Will Take Trip Into North Carolina—Schedule of Games.

With three of last year's team, three let-ter men from other colleges of no mean repute, and a host of good recruits to pick from, it looks as if the Spiders might turn out a baseball team that, to say the least, will be worthy of any of her old rivals. The withdrawal of the probation by the president and faculty means a tower of strength to the team. Every student in the college now has equal shot at the team. Merdith was not only a star twirler of last year, but stood second on the batting list. O'Neil, one of last year's strong-est scrubs, will very likely make a place in the outfield. Both of them were on probation, which has been withdrawn by the kindness of President Boatright.

Coach Dinlo had the squad on Broad Street yesterday afternoon for a light practice. First base is more hotly contested than any place on the diamond. Arnold, who formerly played first base for William and Mary College, is showing up in nice form. Beverly is in the same form that won for him the first sack last season. Underwood, who was the captain of the Randolph-Macon Academy team last year and played first base for them, is making the older men open their eyes. Brown and Gwathmey are showing up well for second, and who shall win out is yet to be decided. Captain Jenkins probably has the best "cinch" on the team, and that is short story.

Candidates in Good Shape. Baggary and Gill are hot rivals for third base, and neither have any trouble in getting the ball to first. Gay made good at shortstop last year, and will very likely do so here, but Vaughan is running him close, and might win out later on. Acree, who won quite a reputation as a pitcher around Tappanhamock last season, is kept in on account of sickness, but will be out in a few days, and is expected to make a warm pitcher for Meredith on the pitching staff. Williams for second, Montgomery for third, and McFarland for catcher are not out yet, but are expected to make a good showing in a few days.

Those showing up well for outfield are H. M. Taylor, Miller, Bristol, Bolton, Sutherland, Coleman and Ford. Taylor, Coleman and Ford have local teams the Spiders will play the Richmond professionals in a few days.
